

Psychology Teacher (Cambridge AS/A Level) - From August 2023

Job Summary

Are you an experienced, enthusiastic teacher with a passion for engaging teaching and learning? We provide a competitive package and the opportunity to work in a successful school alongside warm and supportive colleagues.

Dyatkika is an established school with an excellent reputation for academic success. The school opened in 1995, catering for students aged 3 to 18 years and is known as a leading school in Bali. Students leave Dyatkika well-equipped for further learning in the world's top universities and in their lives beyond school. Dyatkika is a not for profit school meaning that all income is invested in the education of the students and developing the quality of the school's facilities and resources. The School is an accredited Cambridge International School with a beautiful campus overlooking rice fields and the ocean.

We are inviting applications from suitably qualified Psychology Teachers to join our outstanding team from August 2023.

Applicants for the position should:

- have a relevant degree and a full teaching qualification
- have knowledge and experience of teaching Psychology at AS & A Level
- have strong communication skills and the ability to work collaboratively with colleagues from differing backgrounds and cultures
- be willing and enthusiastic about contributing to the school's Extra Curricular Activity programme

It would also be an advantage to have:

- Knowledge and experience of teaching Personal, Social, Health and Economics (PSHE) education
- working knowledge of the Cambridge International Curriculum
- experience teaching bi/multilingual students
